LANCET FOR RAILWAY MEN. ADVANCED BY M'KANE

To Vaccinate Employees on Street-Car Lines and "L" Roads.

Dr. Emery Issues an Order to the Presidents of Companies.

Health Commissioner Emery, of Brooklyn, to-day sent the following circular letter to the Presidents of the Kings County Elevated Railroad Company, Brooklyn City Railroad Company, Van Brunt Street and Erie Basin Railroad Company, Atlantic Avenue Railroad Company, Broadway Railroad Company, Rapid Transit Railroad Company and the Brooklyn City and Newtown Railroad Company:

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH.
Dear Sir: You are hereby directed to protect your employees from the danger of contagion by having them vaccinated within four days from this date, after which time this Department will assume the care of all employees, and where no evidence of recent vaccination exists, such persons will be vaccinated by the examiner. Respectfully yours,
L. TAYLOR, COMMISSIONER.

The Commissioner is making strenuous efforts to check the spread of the contagion. Over 100 vaccinators are working in all parts of the city.

On Friday Dr. W. F. Rickard and ten other physicians visited Havemeyer's Sugar Refinery, South Fourth street and Bedford avenue, and will vaccinate the 2,000 men employed there.

The Department is also receiving applications from street-car companies to vaccinate their employees. Several large establishments in East New York will be visited tomorrow or Thursday.

The new cases of small-pox reported to-day were as follows:

Anton Spindler, fourteen years old, of 181 Harrison avenue; David Hennessy, thirty years old, of 462 E. 14th street; Maggie Riggs, thirty-one years old, of 230 Herkimer street.

"The Evening World" has received the following letter, which was shown to Deputy Commissioner Wyckoff:

BROOKLYN, March 23, 1894.

To the Editor: I am writing to you to report the other day that "vaccination, however, will be insisted upon, even in cases where there may have been exposure in some way to infection."

Today's "World" reports that in which the vaccination officers did insist when no exposure had occurred. Who is right? The vaccination officer or Dr. Emery?

Three persons were imprisoned in their homes Monday night, as they were not vaccinated. Further, it is said, the officer who vaccinated them, said that he would keep them there for ten years if they did not get vaccinated.

While Dr. Emery is explaining, some of his subordinates are evidently imprisoning people, regardless of law or Dr. Emery's statement. Let us have light on this matter and the public will know what to do.

Your truly,
"In every instance where persons are quarantined for the purpose of watching the development of small-pox, no person will be supplied with food," said Mr. Wyckoff. Where an exposure has occurred, however, it is proper to take every means to compel the person to submit to vaccination, even to preventing them from procuring food. Their bodies will be subjected to any injustice."

Revolvers and Money Stolen from a Sporting-Goods Store.

During the night thieves entered James C. Merwin's sporting goods store, 1150 Fulton street, Brooklyn, by sawing a panel out of the door and stole nine revolvers worth $50 and $5 in money.

A thief climbed through the shaft into the store from the back. William G. Haruichs, 1387 Bedford avenue, and got away with jewelry, clothing, a rifle and a revolver, all worth $100.

G. W. Allamille, a saloon-keeper at 163 Broadway, noticed the police and called his store and been entered by burglars, who stole $10 in money.

Early this morning thieves forced their way into William McKee's brass foundry, 218 North Eleventh street, and stole tools and brass fittings valued at $50.

Temple Israel's kirmess and flower fete was opened last evening at the Temple, Bedford and Lafayette avenues, Brooklyn, with unprecedented success. It will be continued each evening up to and including Thursday, with a matinee Friday.

The kirmess is unique and novel in the city, and succeeded in having the most ordinary church fair. In addition to the fine stage entertainment and concert is given each evening.

WAS THE BABE STRANGLER?

Suspicious Marks on the Body of a Newly Born Infant.

The body of a newly born infant, which from marks on its throat had evidently been strangled, was found in the sand lots on Scholes street, Williamsburg, yesterday and the police of the Sixth Precinct are looking for the murderer.

It is nothing new for the bodies of young babies to be found in that section of Williamsburg.

DETECTIVES ACCEPTED A REWARD.

NEWARK, N. J., March 27.—Charges of accepting a bribe of $5 against Detective Murphy and Fallon, of the Second Precinct, were heard by the Police Commissioners last night. Mrs. Tiddy, of 98 Bloomfield avenue, was robbed of a purse containing $51 by a domestic she employed.

The two detectives were put on the case, and succeeded in having the money returned to Mrs. Tiddy. (On receiving the money Mrs. Tiddy refused to accept a reward from the domestic. She gave the detectives $5 as a reward for having recovered the money. This was explained to the commissioners, who assured the detectives for accepting a reward without the consent of the board.)

At the Long Island College Hospital in Brooklyn this morning it was said that Ames Davison, erst male of the British Bank Hamburg, who was shot in the stomach last night by Second Mate Albert Griffiths, of the same vessel, was feeling easily, but the doctors were unable to say whether he would recover. NEW JERSEY NEWS.

INFERNAL MACHINE BLEW UP.

Crane Was Making It to Punish Chicken-Thieves.

He and Workman Price Are Seriously Injured.

ELIZABETH, N. J., March 27.—While James Crane, a Rahway tinsmith, was fixing up an infernal machine last night in Marsh's plumbing shop to blow up chicken thieves who have been committing depredations in the suburbs of the city, the infernal machine prematurely exploded, blowing the machine to pieces and tearing the end of one of Mr. Crane's fingers.

Fragments of the thing were hurled with great force against the walls of the shop, and a couple of the pieces in rebounding struck Chalkley Price, another workman, between the eyes and on the chin, inflicting ugly wounds.

Mr. Price had his back to the machine at the time it blew up, and had caught the full force of the explosion. Mr. Crane's injury will prevent him from working for a week or more. The explosion started the neighborhood.

No more dangerous experiments of the kind will be made in the shop.

PLENTY OF CANDIDATES NOW

Fifteen Men Willing to Be Republican Candidates for Mayor.

NEWARK, N. J., March 27.—There are about fifteen different Republican candidates for Mayor in this city. The primaries were held last night, and in every ward candidates sprung up in a surprising manner. This is due to the fact that the Republicans, for the first time in many years, have a fighting chance of electing a mayor.

The Democratic ticket, headed by John H. Brown, is the only one that has a chance of winning. The Democratic ticket is headed by John H. Brown, is the only one that has a chance of winning.

Dr. H. C. H. Herold seemed to have the best of the fight last night. He counted thirty-six of the delegates are for him, while Assemblyman Woolsey, who was thought to have been the strongest, counted only twenty-three.

Mr. H. M. Doremus, Henry Lebkuecher and Harrison Van Dusen all secured enough delegates to make them think they had a chance of winning.

The Democratic primaries will be held to-night, and it is said by many that Mayor Haynes will secure enough delegates to insure his re-election.

GRINDING OUT MANY LAWS.

Jersey Legislature Knocking Democrats Out of Offices.

Newark Wants to Annex a Few Suburban Towns.

TRENTON, N. J., March 27.—The Legislature has now started down to work for good. Previous to the settlement of the Senatorial deadlock, but little work was done in the way of passing needed laws, but now that the Governor has recognized the Republican Senate, both Houses are grinding out laws at a great rate.

There was a perfect flood of new bills last night, and this morning. Among them are many bills repealing some of the laws by which several Democrats are holding office.

Mr. Elliott, of Essex, introduced a bill which abolishes the public road boards of Essex and Hudson counties, giving control of the roads to the Board of Freeholders.

Mr. Elsie, of Essex, has introduced a bill annexing to Newark the townships of East Orange, South Orange and Clinton.

The Republicans are already having many disagreements among themselves as to some of the bills introduced, and it looks as if the session would last for some weeks yet unless they can come to terms immediately.

The Hudson and Essex members are at loggerheads over a bill changing the method of selecting members of the Board of Freeholders. Essex County wants the manner of electing members changed from the present system to that of the Board of Freeholders.

Hudson County members object to this because they think they will stand no chance of securing a Republican majority.

There was long discussion in the House this morning over a bill which introduced a second-class railroad company, giving rebates to policy-holders in order to secure their insurance.

Mr. Elsie, the introduced bill, which is intended to create a State Water Board, is to be appointed by the Governor. It is to consist of four Commissioners, to be appointed by the Governor. The salary is to be fixed by the Governor.

The army also decline to give free transportation.
